

Get Red-y (Har) for the Red Tie Launch Party

Get that red hot outfit out 'cause red is what it's all about at the ~RED TIE LAUNCH PARTY~ on Thursday October 14th, 6pm-9pm, in the Burritt Room at the Crescent Hotel. This par-tay is bringing together some of the city's best in art, music, food, and drink, and all for a good cause: Little Sisters of the Poor and St. Anne's Home.

Join the party by entering through an old speakeasy stairwell to reach the Burritt Room. This secret entrance will lead you to an evening of music and DJs, complimentary SKYY cocktails and local wines, culinary bites by Taste Catering, and more. Plus you'll see models exhibiting a special collection of wearable sculpture by the Academy of Art University.

The Red Tie Launch Party is the official kick-off for the biennial Red Tie Gala 2010 to be held at Neiman Marcus on Friday November 19th. Tickets for the Launch Party are $30 at the door or online, or make it a double and get into the Launch Party free with a Red Tie Gala ticket. 21 and up only; RSVP by October 12th. Follow the party on Twitter and Facebook. Both events benefit Little Sisters of the Poor and the elderly poor residents at St. Anne's Home in San Francisco.

Mirror at the Burritt Room.